

Jane Trainer ALAM LLAM Hons

Jane trained at RADA after being awarded the coveted Dalziel Scholarship and has acted around the world on stage & radio, in TV, films & commercials, together with directing and producing. She runs LifeStage Drama school, teaches at Centre Stage in Beaconsfield, is a Trustee of The Hope Foundation charity, and is proud that many of her students are members of the National Youth Theatre and in full time training at drama school. Jane lives in Marlow with her husband and son.

Theatre includes:

Directing her adaptation of Celebrating Pride and Prejudice

Playing Elizabeth Bennet at The Kenton Theatre

Jeffrey Bernard Is Unwell in the West End and National Tour

2 seasons with Alan Ayckbourn at his Stephen Joseph Theatre- created 2 leading roles in 2 new plays

Seasons with Actors Touring Company, Sphinx Theatre Company and Middle and Far East tours of classical plays.

TV includes:

Kerry in I'm Alan Partridge

BBC's Doctors - regular character of DI Roth

Lead Balloon

Casualty

In Suspicious Circumstances

The Bill

Believe Nothing

The Safe House

Annie's Bar

Beyond Reason

Dad

Harbour Lights

As Time Goes By

Films include:

First Knight with Sean Connery and Richard Gere
Female lead in Heartlands for Miramax
Swinging with the Finkels
Internal Turmoil of the Plastic Kind
The Banker - awarded BAFTA for Best Short Film